

I wish register my strong opposition to the concept of an ever increasing amount of media under the control of limited ownership. The resulting narrowing of focus can only serve the intrests of the owners involved.